"THE HEALTH FARM WALLOP"
9th of the Jack Dempsey Universal

"FIGHT AND WIN" Series

SEP 25 1924

Tiger Jack O'Day decides to build up his arm muscles by sawing wood in a northern lumber camp and with his trainer and manager leaves the city. Once up in the woods Jack gets a message demanding his immediate presence in San Francisco. With Beans, his trainer, he starts down the lumber camp flume and half way down is struck by a falling tree and when found some time later is unconscious. He is taken to Reisner's sanitarium nearby and although he regains consciousness, he thinks he is an English dude he has met at the camp, and spends his time imitating him. Reisner thinks it would be a good idea to stage a bout with Jack for the amusement of his patients. He does not know the identity of the man he intends to battle, however, and only finds it out when Jack falls against one of the ring posts in the scrap and has his memory restored. Then the poor Reisner gets an awful trimming. But Jack is grateful inasmuch as he gets his memory back and is able to keep his Fourth of July fight date.
